What do we do...?

Healthwatch Portsmouth is the independent voice of the users of health and social care services across Portsmouth

- We provide information about local health and care services
- We work locally to gather the views of local people on local health and care services in Portsmouth
- We use the feedback received to work with service providers to make services better
- Your feedback can help build a national picture of people's views on health and care services to influence policy
- The Independent NHS Complaints Advocacy Service is co-located in the Healthwatch Portsmouth offices. It can offer support and guidance to people who wish to make a complaint about their NHS care

Speak up... what do you think?

Please provide feedback on local services to help them improve. Have you had a good service from the hospital, pharmacist or doctor's surgery recently? Maybe you are unhappy with the way you received care?

If you have a view about local services, GOOD or BAD - please speak up

Your voice counts

Your feedback will help us understand current health and social care issues in Portsmouth so that we can talk to health and care decision makers to improve local services. You can also provide feedback on our website or email us info@healthwatchportsmouth.co.uk or speak to us confidentially on 02393541510.
